It was brought out today in the trial of Hattie Le Blanc on the charge that she murdered Clarence F. Glover, in the East Cambridge court, that when she was asked point blank by the police in Waltham soon after her arrest if she had shot Glover she emphatically denied it.

"Did you shoot Mr. Glover?" was asked.
"No," replied Hattie, promptly, in English.

FACT BROUGHT OUT DURING CONTROVERSY.

Nothing was brought out as to what precisely made this mark. Elmore said about it.

Examination Is Suspended.

There was a controversy among the attorneys as to whether Hattie Le Blanc understood English at this time and Judge Woodcock said that it did not appear that she did.

Disputed Attorney Higgins argued that all she wanted was to have the statement made by her to the police.

"State of this statement before her," Higgins said, "is not a statement, but a statement of fact."

SENATOR LODGE SAYS HE'S HAPPY IN ADVERSITY

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—United States Senator Lodge of Massachusetts stopped at the Hotel Hamilton in Washington and was observed to be wearing an exceedingly cheerful smile as he came out of the hotel.

"I feel," said Senator Lodge, "that I am in a sort of lucky way. It did not seem to me to be a very pleasant thing to be in this city, but I am now in a position to see the Government in the Capitol."

"You look very cheerful for a man who has been in this city for so long," remarked an acquaintance.

"Well," replied the Senator, "I am about as happy as a good man can be in adversity."

The chief reason for the Senator's cheerful expression is the fact that he is now in a position to see the Government in the Capitol. He is now in a position to see the Government in the Capitol.

COGSWELL COMMENTS ON BILLIARD CRACKS

By Ed COGSWELL.
Those who have seen Jack Schaefer, the star of the "World's" position at National's, assert there is every reason to believe he will develop into a wonder at billiards. For a young man, without previous training till this season, he has come trailing in a rapid pace, and has known it takes time for any top star at the game to arrive at that stage.

Young Jack and Ora Morrell have been some engaged at the billiard table, and they continue on their tour of the country. Along in the spring they expect to go abroad for a series of games.

By the way, talking of the stars, the match finished last night between Willie Hoppe and George Sloman, fully proves what a wonder the former is at the game. It is a mistake, though, in claiming Hoppe was a match for the latter. The match was made at two points, 20-10 points for the match, and it was all over in the first set.

Jack Schaefer looks the average for 20 points, made in 10 minutes. He is a high run in the match that night. This was the first time that Jack Schaefer, who has been a wonder at the game, has been defeated. He was defeated by Willie Hoppe, who was a match for the latter. The match was made at two points, 20-10 points for the match, and it was all over in the first set.

Sloman was the first man to challenge Hoppe when the latter, then a boy, was a wonder at the game. He was a match for the latter. The match was made at two points, 20-10 points for the match, and it was all over in the first set.

80 AND 82 SUMMER ST., BOSTON. DECEMBER 3, 1916.

If the united railroads of the United States were managed for the people by men as able as those that now manage them competitively, by men thinking only of railroad development and of public service, the saving would be infinitely greater than a million dollars a day, and the service infinitely better than it is now—and you may be sure that Hill and Gould and the others know this.

Panel 1: A man in a suit (the detective) asks a man in a top hat (the fellow) for directions. The fellow, who is carrying a cane and a bag, looks confused and says "MY 10 BUCKS?".

Panel 2: The fellow is running away from the detective, who is chasing him. The fellow is shouting "NAW!" and the detective is shouting "WARRR!".

well; Therefore to-night he makes his bed in hell. Gone are the grace and glory—all is gone; The tower is fallen that so proudly shone in the sun's eye, and now the hucksters sell The sculptured stone, foul groping where men; then more critically to appraise their worth, to observe the success which attends them, and, if fortune favor, to realize some insight into the play of personal forces that shape our fate individually, collectively, nationally."
